

Course Title: Archaeology

State: Texas State Course Title: Special Topics in Social Studies State Course Code: 113.47 State Standards: Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills Date of Standards: 2017-18

TEKS	Unit Name(s)	Lesson(s) Numbers
(1) Social studies skills. The student uses problem-solving and decision-making skills, working independently and with others, in a variety of settings. The student is expected to:
 (A) apply social studies methodologies encompassing a variety of research and analytical tools to explore questions or issues thoroughly and fairly to include multiple perspectives; 	Unit 8: Public Archaeology and Modern Society	Lab Questions
(B) evaluate effects of major political, economic, and social conditions on a selected social studies topic;	Unit 6: Social Organizations	L1-L5
(C) appraise a geographic perspective that considers physical and cultural processes as they affect the selected topic;	Unit 5: The Fossil Record	L4-L6
(D) examine the role of diverse communities in the context of the selected topic;	Unit 4: Cultural Origins	Lab Questions
(E) analyze ethical issues raised by the selected topic in historic, cultural, and social contexts;	Unit 2: Recording the Past	Lab Questions
(F) depending on the topic, use a problem-solving process to identify a problem, gather information, list and consider options, consider advantages and disadvantages, choose and implement a solution, and evaluate the effectiveness of the solution; and
(G) depending on the topic, use a decision-making process to identify a situation that requires a decision, gather information, identify options, predict consequences, and take action to implement a decision.	Unit 3: Unearthing Ancient Civilizations	Lab Questions
(2) Social studies skills. The student applies critical-thinking skills to organize and use information acquired from a variety of valid sources, including electronic technology. The student is expected to:

	T
(A) locate, analyze, organize, synthesize, evaluate, and apply	Unit 3: Unearthing information about the selected topic, identifying, describing, and	Ancient Civilizations	Lab Questions evaluating multiple points of view;
(B) differentiate between valid primary and secondary sources and use them appropriately to conduct research and construct arguments;
(C) read narrative texts critically and identify points of view from	Unit 2: Recording the the historical context surrounding an event and the frame of	Past	Lab Questions reference that influenced the participants; (D) analyze information by sequencing, categorizing, identifying cause-and-effect relationships, comparing, contrasting, finding the main idea, summarizing, making generalizations and predictions,	Units 1-8	Lesson Text and drawing inferences and conclusions;
(E) collect visual images (photographs, paintings, political cartoons, and other media) to enhance understanding and	Units 1-8	Lesson Text appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; Unit 2: Recording the
(F) identify bias in written, oral, and visual material;	Past	Lab Questions
(G) evaluate the validity of a source based on language, corroboration with other sources, and information about the author; and
(H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs.	Units 1-8	Lab Questions
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and 	Units 1-8	Lab Questions
(H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs.	Units 1-8	Lab Questions
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: 		Lab Questions
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; 	Units 1-8	Lesson
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written 		Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; 	Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; 	Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; (G) develop a bibliography with ideas and information attributed 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; (G) develop a bibliography with ideas and information attributed to source materials and authors using accepted social science 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; (G) develop a bibliography with ideas and information attributed to source materials and authors using accepted social science formats such as Modern Language Association Style Manual (MLA) 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; (G) develop a bibliography with ideas and information attributed to source materials and authors using accepted social science 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; (G) develop a bibliography with ideas and information attributed to source materials and authors using accepted social science formats such as Modern Language Association Style Manual (MLA) and Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) to document sources and format written materials; and 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments
 (H) use appropriate mathematical skills to interpret social studies information such as maps and graphs. (3) Social studies skills. The student creates written, oral, and visual presentations of social studies information. The student is expected to: (A) apply the conventions of usage and mechanics of written English; (B) use social studies terminology correctly; (C) use appropriate oral communication techniques; (D) construct a thesis that is supported by evidence; (E) recognize and evaluate counter arguments; (F) use visual images (photographs, paintings, and other media) to facilitate understanding and appreciation of multiple perspectives in a social studies topic; (G) develop a bibliography with ideas and information attributed to source materials and authors using accepted social science formats such as Modern Language Association Style Manual (MLA) and Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) to document sources and 	Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8 Units 1-8	Lesson Assessments Lesson Assessments Lesson Lesson Assessments